PRESS RELEASE

26 December 2016

Announcement of new Passport Rules

With a view to streamline, liberalize and ease the process of issue of passports, the Government of India has announced several policy changes in the passport rules in submission of documents as proof of Date of Birth, filling up of online passport application with the name of father or mother or legal guardian, i.e. only one parent and not both, etc.

Further, changes in submission of documents by orphaned children, sadhus, single mothers and government employees have also been made.
